Conclusions and Recommendations:

The registrant has submitted a Confidential Statement of Formula and label for Fenoxaprop-ethyl Technical of a different racemic mixture ratio than the registered chemical. He wishes to amend this new mixture to EPA reg. No. 8340-22. This formulated product should be classified under a new registration (new product). (Refer to Confidential Appendix A for further discussion)

He should submit product chemistry data (Series 61, 62 and 63), efficacy data and a label. The data under study should include a thorough discussion of the two components of the new racemic mixture.

The ingredient Statement on label may be required depending upon assessment of all the requested information specially the efficacy & identification of each isomers.
