RESICIDE EMULSION CONCENTRATE

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

Resicide Brand Emulsion Concentrate has been formulated to be diluted with water before using. For routine control of small easy-to-kill species of Silverfish and Ants, use 6.4 ounces of Resicide Brand Emulsion Concentrate per gallon of water. To control the larger harder-to-kill species of Roaches, Grain Beetles, and Hide Beetles, use 12.8 ounces per gallon of water. Pour concentrate into spray tank, add required amount of water, and shake well. Only mix what you are going to use each spray operation.

To control Roaches, Ants, Silverfish, Grain Beetles, and Hide Beetles, spray thoroughly in cracks and crevices, behind sinks, counters, etc., so as to directly contact insects hiding there. A coarser type spray is recommended to insure best results.
