

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

Apply to the surface of the tobacco leaves to be treated. Top when possible. The active ingredient is a contact insecticide. It kills insects on contact. It does not penetrate the body of the insect. It is not effective against insects which are already in the stream of the tobacco leaves. It is not effective against insects which are already in the stream of the tobacco leaves. It is not effective against insects which are already in the stream of the tobacco leaves.

WHITEOL "T"

Net Contents _____ U.S. Gallons
USDA Registration No. 987-9

WHITEOL "T"

ACTIVE INGREDIENT: White Mineral Oil
Heavy, U.S.P. 100 Percent

INERT INGREDIENTS: 0 Percent

for CONTROL OF TOBACCO SUCKERS

CAUTION - KEEP OUT OF THE REACH OF CHILDREN
Manufactured by PENNSYLVANIA REFINING CO. BUTLER, PA. U.S.A.

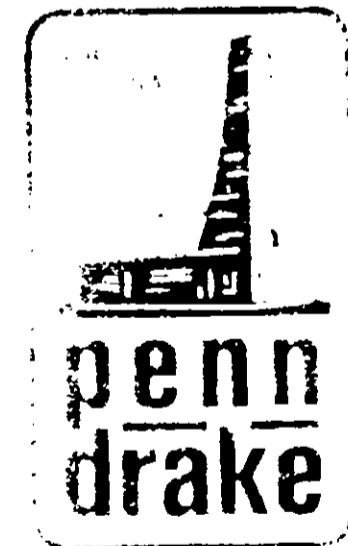

WHITEOL "T"

FOR CONTROL OF TOBACCO SUCKERS

A WORD OF CAUTION

Caution should be exercised in the use of this product. It is a contact insecticide and is not intended for use on food crops. It is not effective against insects which are already in the stream of the tobacco leaves. It is not effective against insects which are already in the stream of the tobacco leaves.

PENNSYLVANIA REFINING CO.

AMERICAN