Re: Nolvasan Solution, EPA Reg. No. 1007-99

Dear Mr. Swindell

The labeling for the product above which was approved by EPA on March 8, 2013 inadvertently left off a manufacturer's advisory statement "Protect from freezing." This was not a statement required by EPA, but does appear in previous versions of the approved label. In order to protect product quality, we will add this statement back to the label at the next printing. I have enclosed an editor's copy of the label showing where the statement previously appeared and will be added back. Labeling that has been printed without the statement will be used, but will have the statement "Preserve from freezing" added by laser printer to the imprint area next to the lot number. We will submit copies of the final printed labeling when it becomes available.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.
