D. Although the Agency does not normally require registrants of insect repellent products to submit effectiveness data to support their products, the Agency does expect these registrants to retain such data in their files. In the event that the Agency were to receive complaints about product effectiveness in the future, it could then request such registrants to submit those data in their files.

This registration will be subject to cancellation in accordance with FIFRA sec. 6(e) if you do not comply with these conditions. Your release for shipment of the product constitutes acceptance of these conditions.

A stamped copy of the label is enclosed for your records.
