THREATENED AND ENDANGERED SPECIES

Special local needs (SLN) labels are important to states like Texas with niche industries and significant economic risks due to local pest problems. Our stewardship of this important labeling process is important and must also consider the potential off-target effects of any pesticide used in Texas. This includes any potential harm to threatened or endangered (TE) species in our state. Please carefully consider the use of this pesticide and obtain as much information as you can to help ensure your application will have no impacts on TE species.
