Hi Linda – Following up on our telephone conversation this morning, please find attached the new information request letter from Region 1 to PSNH. As I understand it, the letter went out on November 8, 2013. (I state it that way because it was not sent out by my office.) Presumably, your office should receive a mailed copy shortly.

The new letter, of course, speaks for itself, but in response to your questions about the new letter, I offer the following summary: 1) the new letter requests the same information as the March 2012 information request letter, but it numbers the items a bit differently and adds a couple of additional, related items (see Items 1.b.iv and 1.b.vii); 2) the new letter expressly states that PSNH need not re-submit any responsive information that it has already submitted to Region 1; 3) the letter requests that existing responsive information be submitted within 20 business days of PSNH's receipt of the letter, while responsive information that is developed in the future must be submitted on a monthly basis; and 4) the letter places an end-date of September 30, 2014, on the request for information, provided, however, that EPA could, as appropriate, take action to terminate the request earlier or, in effect, to extend it further in time by sending another new letter.

I hope this summary is helpful.

Sincerely,

Mark Stein
