Mark: Thanks for this. Please see attached document that we have been working on--also for discussion purposes. How does May 21 look for you all? Later that week is difficult for me.

Thanks,

Stephen

Hi Stephen –

Please see the attached paper including draft thermal discharge limits for consideration and discussion.

I already found out that Eric Nelson cannot do the week of May 13. He is out-of-state all week doing on-site field work.

I have a large brief due on Thursday the preceding week.

So maybe we should shoot for the week of May 20? Let me know if that generally works for your folks and we'll pin down a date.

Thanks.

- Mark

Hi, Mark. I tried to call you just now, but the phone didn't ring. Not sure if that's my end or yours. Will try again later today if you are around. Or you can call me. I think we were going to try to talk this week.

Thanks,

Stephen
