

Leominster Public Library

30 West Street, Leominster, MA

978-534-7522

[storm closing – WPKZ, AM 1280]

Route 2, from points east, heading west into Leominster:

Take I-190, Exit # 33. Follow Mechanic Street signs. Go straight through 3 sets of traffic lights. At the 4th light (about 1.7 miles from I-190), turn left onto Main Street. Get into the right lane and go straight through the next light (with Subway on the corner) onto Pleasant Street. Take next right onto Pearl Street. Look for the entrance to the library parking lot on the right-hand side about midway down the block.

Library Parking

The library's main parking lot is shared with the Pilgrim Congregational Church and offers 49 regular spaces and 2 handicapped spaces. Please enter and exit this parking lot from Pearl Street, which runs parallel to West Street behind the library. Please avoid using or parking in the church driveways.

In addition to the library's main parking lot, there are other options for parking in the area:

- Free on-street parking on Pearl Street
- Metered spaces on West Street in front of the library.
- The municipal parking lot marked with a large blue "Free Parking" sign on West Street, on the far side of the office of Joseph N. Fraticelli, CPA.
- The parking lot between the First Baptist and Unitarian Universalist churches across from the Common on West Street
- The municipal parking garage next to the Police Station.
- The Leominster City Hall parking lot, which may be used on weekends and after City Hall closes for the day at 4:00 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and 5:30 p.m. on Thursdays.
