
Sunday, August 27, 1978

Return Harvest Bee

pile driv-s" are the
are veter-
on farms de many ght up in ve steam,
e 10 ton gned over two gen-

"I was raised on a farm in Minnesota," explained Ted Mudek, a Milwaukee policeman who spends his days off polishing his steamer here. "My grandfather had three threshing machines, and my father had one. I missed out when we moved to Milwaukee. Now I have one, too — a

Turn to Harvest, page 8, col. 1

1 Practice kes Perfect

Special to The Journal

is. — They've been practicing eight summer long, and they sold thousands of the bills.

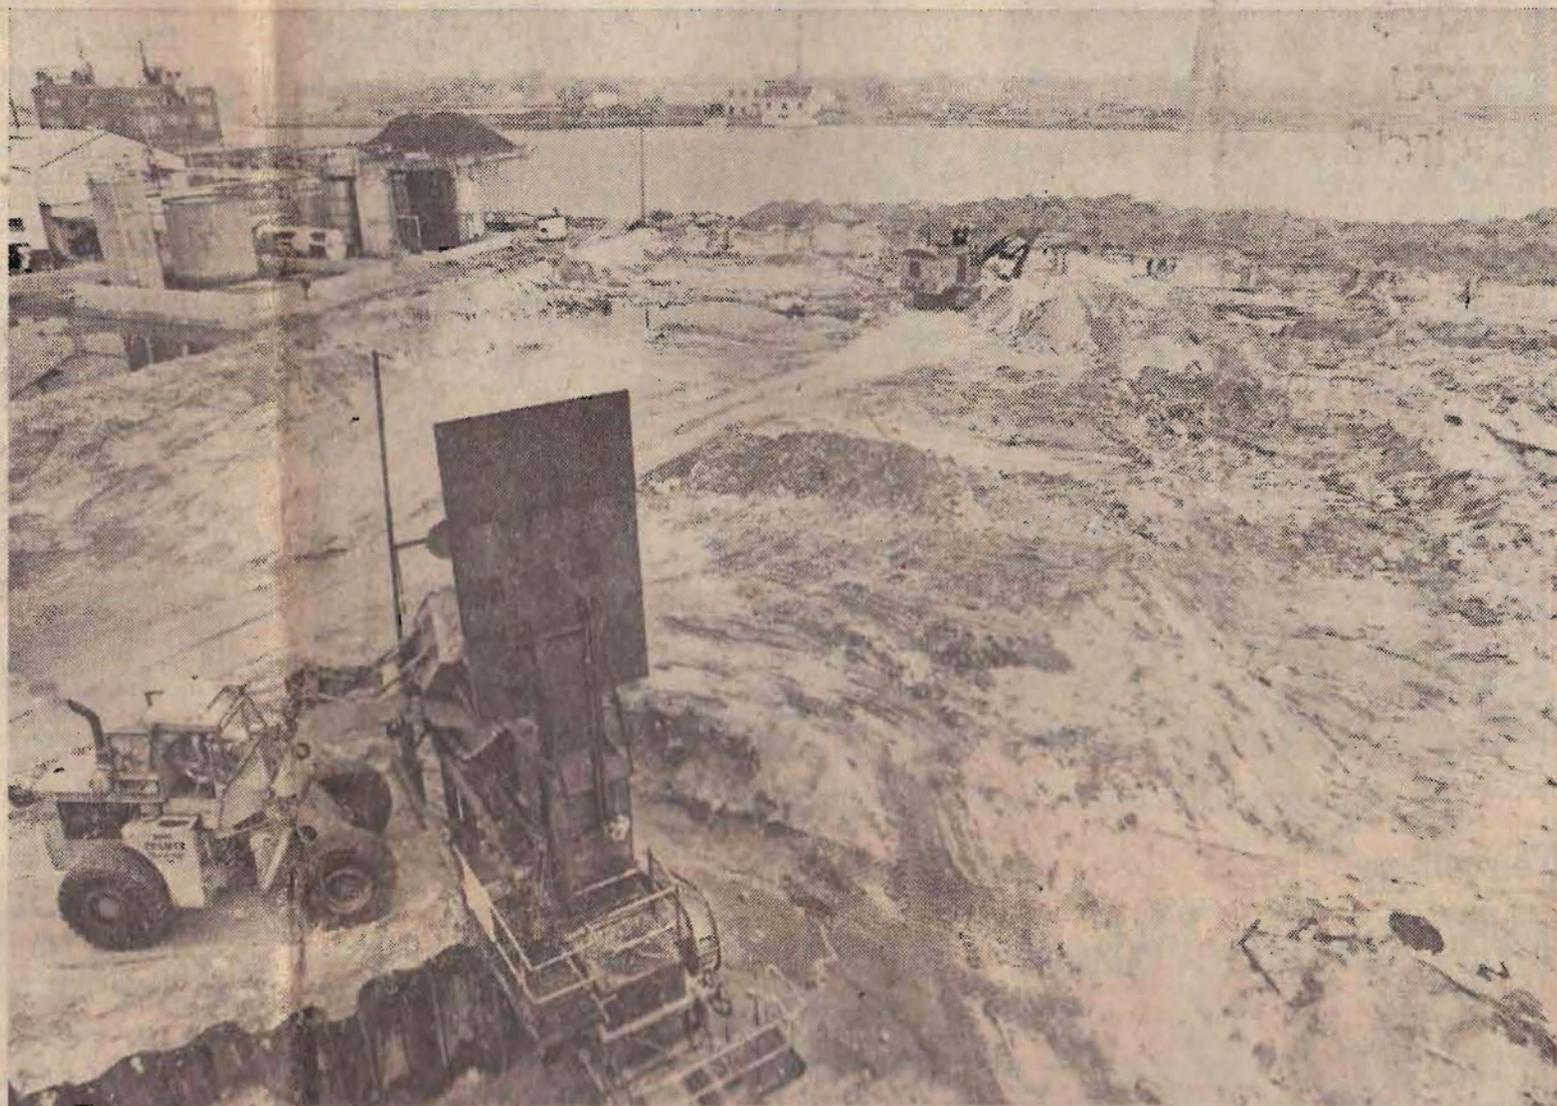

worth it last week when the 123 girls Northern Step Drill Team took first erans of Foreign Wars national drill rips in Dallas, Tex.

h year in a row that the girls, mostly of took first place in either the VFW, the n or the National Open championship home ceremonies Friday night at Port am won praise from Green Bay Mayor area legislators, the Green Bay Pack- ate officials.

More on Schedule

its start almost 10 years ago as the eble Optimist Club in Green Bay. Oth- edated over the years, including the SALT PILES REMOVED — A power shovel and front end loader removed the remains of the arsenic contaminat- ed salt piles at the Ansul Co. in Mari-—Journal Photo by George P. Koshollek nette, Wis. The Menominee River is in the background.

Arsenic Leaves $7 Million Hangover