Article 5. Portable Engine and Equipment Registration

2451. Purpose.

The purpose of this regulation is to establish a statewide portable equipment registration program.

This regulation shall be subject to the provisions of the California Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, and to the provisions of the California Code of Regulations, Title 13, Chapter 2, Sections 2451 through 2462.

(1) The registration program shall be subject to the provisions of the California Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, and to the provisions of the California Code of Regulations, Title 13, Chapter 2, Sections 2451 through 2462.

(2) The registration program shall be subject to the provisions of the California Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations, and to the provisions of the California Code of Regulations, Title 13, Chapter 2, Sections 2451 through 2462.

2452. Definitions.

(1) "Registration program" means the statewide portable equipment registration program established by the Department of Industrial Relations.

(2) "Registration fee" means the fee established by the Department of Industrial Relations for the registration of portable equipment.

§ 2462. Duration of registration.

- (a) Except for registrations that will expire on December 31, 2009 pursuant to sections 2456(d)(10) and 17 CCR 93116.3(b)(1)(A), Registrations and renewals will be valid for three years from date of issuance. For change of ownership, the registration shall retain the original expiration date, except where the registration has expired.
- (b) The Executive Officer shall mail to the owner of a registered engine or equipment unit a renewal invoice at least 60 days prior to the registration expiration. Failure to send or receive a renewal invoice does not relieve the responsible official from paying all applicable fees when due.
