

May 9, 1990

NOTE TO DEAN WILSON

SUBJECT: El Paso/Juarez CO Modeling Plan

Comment: The use of the Urban Airshed Model to evaluate areawide CO control strategies is an excellent choice given the meteorological and topographic conditions of the airshed. However, the areawide solutions described may mask CO hot spot problems which result from congested intersections. Thus, data should be collected for intersection modeling and intersection modeling should be performed in addition to areawide modeling.

Tom Braverman
Tom Braverman

cc: J. Dicke