The EPA in conjunction with the National Association of Clean Air Agencies (NACAA) is pleased to invite you to the National Ambient Air Monitoring Conference.

GET ESSENTIAL TRAINING ON AIR MONITORING TOPICS!

Whether your previous air monitoring experience spans months, years, or decades, this conference will provide you with the skills and information to help prepare for the future challenges of air monitoring.

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

Interested in presenting a paper or a poster at the Conference? Great! We want to hear from you. We are interested in receiving proposals related to the technical sessions listed in the draft agenda, which is posted on the conference website. Please send your abstracts to Laurie Trinca (trinca.laurie@epa.gov). Abstracts are due no later than May 18, 2016.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

State, local, Tribal and international air quality staff involved with operating, planning, or managing air monitoring networks and reporting data to AQS, AIRNOW, and other users. We also encourage other stakeholders including health researchers, dispersion modelers, data analysts, and air quality policy staff to attend to gain additional perspectives on how air monitoring data are collected and utilized.
