The EPA in conjunction with the National Association of Clean Air Agencies (NACAA) is pleased to invite you to the National Ambient Air Monitoring Conference.

GET ESSENTIAL TRAINING ON AIR MONITORING TOPICS!

Whether your previous air monitoring experience spans months, years, or decades, this conference will provide you with the skills and information to help prepare for the future challenges of air monitoring.

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

Interested in presenting a paper or a poster at the Conference? Great! We want to hear from you. A draft agenda is posted on EPA's website (<http://www.epa.gov/ttn/amtic/naamc.html>). We are interested in receiving proposals related to the agenda technical sessions listed. Please send your abstracts to Laurie Trinca (trinca.laurie@epa.gov). Abstracts are due no later than April 25, 2014.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

State, local, Tribal and international air quality staff involved with operating, planning, or managing air monitoring networks and reporting data to AQS, AIRNOW, and other users. We also encourage other stakeholders including health researchers, dispersion modelers, data analysts, and air quality policy staff to attend to gain additional perspectives on how air monitoring data are collected and utilized.

EXHIBIT AND SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Promote your business or organization to the people leading the nation's ambient air monitoring programs by exhibiting and/or sponsoring. Exhibits are an integral portion of the conference and spaces will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Sponsorship opportunities exist for supporting daily refreshments and an evening reception. For more information on exhibit and sponsorship opportunities, contact Erin Pittorino at ERG.

HOTEL RESERVATION INFORMATION

This year's conference is being held at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis, which is located in Downtown Atlanta, GA. You are responsible for making your hotel reservations. The hotel conference rate is $133 a night for a single or double room, plus applicable taxes (currently 16% per room per night).

All reservations must be made by Monday, July 21, 2014. After this date, reservations are subject to space and rate availability. To make your reservation, please call the national reservation number at 1-800-228-9290 and reference NAAMC or EPA and the Atlanta Marriott Marquis to receive the group rate.
