

Join us for a visit to the Flying W Ranch and enjoy a taste of the Old West!

Wednesday, June 9, 2010
5:00 to 9:30 p.m.

Join us at the Flying W Ranch for a chuckwagon supper and western stage show! The Ranch is a working mountain cattle ranch located in the foothills of Colorado Springs. It's been in operation since 1953 and is Colorado Springs' #1 dinner and show venue.

The Flying W offers a winning combination of picturesque natural surroundings, an authentic Western Town, tasty cowboy cuisine and the finest in western music.

The Old West comes alive in the Western Village, a collection of 12 shops offering a variety of merchandise and containing authentic period pieces. You'll find an old time drugstore with a soda fountain serving up tasty treats. You may watch the Ferrier shoe one of the horses in the Blacksmith shop. In the underground Indian Kiva, you may watch a skilled Navajo rug weaver create a work of art. You may also visit the Adobe Jail and the Old School House or make a visit to the Cowboy store.

The supper includes tender slices of beef or BBQ chicken, foil-wrapped potatoes, beans, chunky applesauce, old fashioned spice cake, biscuits, coffee, lemonade or iced tea. After supper, sit back under the stars and enjoy the world's second oldest cowboy band, the Flying W Wranglers.

The bus will depart the Antlers Hilton hotel promptly at 5:00 p.m. The supper will be served at 7:00 p.m. Seating is assigned on a first come, first served basis. The 1-hour western music show starts at 8:00 p.m. and the bus will depart the Ranch at approximately 9:15 p.m.

The event price includes round-trip bus transportation from the Antlers Hilton to the Flying W Ranch, admission to the Western Town, supper, show, tax and gratuities. The estimated price list is below; prices will be finalized closer to the event.
